

The Heirloom Orchard

A Three-Day Series on Estate Orchard Management

Saturday Dec 8th, 15th, 22nd 2018
5:00-8:00 pm
3357 Rt. 9W, Highland NY 12528

Join Peter Jentsch & Dr. Srdan Acimovic, homeowners and management professionals for a three-week series, each evening discussion and workshop focusing on 3 hours devoted to establishing and maintaining new or existing estate orchards using 3 with apple and cider tastings, hands-on experience in our research orchards.

Topics will cover:

New Orchard Establishment and Management Options:

Hudson Valley orchard site selection, irrigation, disease resistant apple variety selection; wildlife management; netting use, insect and disease pest management tools and options.

Day 1: Site selection, varieties, irrigation and orchard wildlife & pest management considerations

Day 2: Tree revival: Pruning, training, crop load and pest management in organic production systems

Day 3: New Orchard Plantings: design considerations & pest management using IPM production

Free for current HVRL, Inc. members; non-members $100.00

Call Erica at 845-691-7151 to register

Peter Jentsch & Dr. Srdan Acimovic, are Extension Associates, Department of Entomology and Integrated Plant Science (Plant Pathology & Plant Microbe Biology) respectively with the College of Ag. Science at Cornell University stationed at the Hudson Valley Research Laboratory (HVRL) in Highland, NY.

DEC Continuing Education Credits in 1A, 3A - Agricultural Plant categories available: 2 hr/day, 6/hr for full series

