

Cornell Cooperative Extension
Eastern New York Commercial Horticulture

CCE & Hudson Valley Research Lab Research and Extension Tour July 26th 2019

The Eastern NY Commercial Horticultural Program and Hudson Valley Research Lab are hosting a 2019 Research and Extension Summer Tour on July 26th from 12:30 – 5:00 PM. Beginning at the Highland Research Station Conference Room.

Join CCE-ENYCHP tree fruit specialist Dan Donahue, plant pathologist Dr. Srdjan Acimovic, entomologist Peter Jentsch and Brent Short of Trécé on an afternoon tour beginning at the Hudson Valley Research Laboratory, then onto Milton, Marlboro and Walden focused on management of apples including exclusion netting of hail, birds and insect pests, fireblight and apple scab disease management, bitter pit management of Honey Crisp, wooly apple aphid management and mating disruption of dogwood borer, codling moth and oriental fruit moth with low rate / A dispensers.

Tour Agenda:

Stop 1: Hudson Valley Research Laboratory \(FARM\)

12:30-1:30 PM

3357 Route 9W, Highland, New York 12528

12 min. drive (7.9 mi.)

Stop 2: Crist Brothers - Milton

2:00-2:30 PM

193-167 Willow Tree Rd

Milton, NY 12547

41.653723, -73.982160

6 min. drive (3.1 mi.)

Stop 3: Porpiglia Orchard

3:00-3:45 PM

480 Lattintown Rd, Marlboro, NY 12542

41.632133, -73.998514

19 min. drive (12.1 mi.)

Stop 4: Crist Brothers – Schoonmaker Orchard, Walden

4:15 – 5:00 PM

1191 County Rd 21

Walden, NY 12589

41.638915, -74.137797

Sponsored by the CCE ENY Commercial Hort. Program & Hudson Valley Research Lab

Cornell Cooperative Extension
Eastern New York Commercial Horticulture

