

Best Management Practices for New High Tunnel Growers

Tuesday
December 2, 2014
Civil Defense Center
7220 State Route 54
Bath, NY 14810
10:00am - 3:00 pm

Topics Include:
Site Selection & Structural Considerations
Crop & Variety Selection
Cultural Management
Disease Management
Experienced Grower Panel

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Steuben County
3 East Pulteney Square
Bath, NY 14810

High Tunnel School: Best Management Practices for High Tunnel Growers

Please return this form with payment by November 25, 2014 (to guarantee lunch) to: CCE Steuben County,
3 E. Pulteney Square, Bath, NY 14810

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

How many will be attending? _____ Amount Enclosed ($25/person) _____
(Checks payable to CCE-Steuben)

High Tunnel School: Best Management Practices for New High Tunnel Growers

This program is targeted for commercial growers new to high tunnels. NRCS cooperating farms are particularly encouraged to attend. All who are interested in improving their crop yield, quality, and profitability by using high tunnels are welcome.

Registration is due by November 25, 2014

Cost $25/person includes lunch, refreshments and resource materials

To register online with a credit card visit <http://cvp.cce.cornell.edu>

Or call Stephanie Mehlenbacher at 607-583-3240

Or mail the registration on the other side of this brochure.

Speakers:

- Experienced growers
- Judson Reid, Specialist with Cornell Vegetable Program
- Amy Ivy, Specialist with Eastern New York Horticulture Program
- Elizabeth Buck, Cornell Vegetable Program

No recertification credits. This program is sponsored by CCE Clinton County and CCE Steuben County in collaboration with the Cornell Vegetable Program and the Eastern New York Commercial Horticulture Program and is funded in part by a Specialty Crops Research Initiative block grant through the NYS Dept. of Ag & Markets.

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension

Cornell University Cooperative Extension provides equal program and employment opportunities. Please contact the Cornell Cooperative Extension office if you have any special needs. CCE does not endorse or recommend any specific product or service. This program is solely intended to educate consumers about their choices.