

Farm Food Safety Training with GAPs

February 9-10, 2015

8:30 AM Registration & Refreshments; 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM Training

Village of Arcade Fire Hall, 145 North Street, Arcade, NY 14009

Cornell Cooperative Extension, the Produce Safety Alliance, and the Cornell National GAPs Program, with assistance from New York Department of Agriculture & Markets, will be presenting a training for farm food safety or Good Agricultural Practices (GAPs).

Open to all fresh produce farms and related industry people.

Are you a farmer interested in produce safety?

Are your markets asking for food safety plans or third party verification?

Do you want to understand produce safety issues and Good Agricultural Practices as well as the FSMA proposed Produce Rule and third party audits?

If so, join us for this multi-day workshop on Good Agricultural Practices (GAPs) and leave with a farm food safety plan for YOUR farm!

Monday, February 9

- What are Good Agricultural Practices (GAPs)?
- How can I implement GAPs?
- What does it mean for my farming operations?
- FSMA overview
- Information about third-party audits

Tuesday, February 10

- Write a food safety plan for your farm*

$60.00 per person registration includes educational materials, lunch and refreshments. Add $15.00 each for additional attendee from the same farm. Pre-register by Sunday, February 8, 2015. Space is limited!

Register online at <http://tinyurl.com/GAPs2015-Arcade> or mail in your registration form and payment.

* A laptop computer is required for the second day. If you need to borrow a computer, please let us know in advance. If you are not computer savvy, please bring a person with you that has computer knowledge and skills.
