

Hard Cider Producer and Apple Grower Network Meeting

Wednesday, July 8th from 2pm–5pm
Finger Lakes Cider House

Are you a hard cider producer looking for apples or an apple grower looking for new markets?

Join us for the first ever state-wide Cornell Cooperative Extension Hard Cider Producer and Apple Grower Networking Meeting sponsored by the North East Juice Cooperative.

The meeting will start with presentations on the NY apple and hard cider production industries by Extension staff and local experts. Following the business meeting there will be a tour of the cider house, a tasting of the region's best hard ciders and an opportunity to network with apple growers and hard cider producers.

There is no registration fee thanks to our sponsor but registration is required by July 3rd. To register, contact Kim Hazel and for questions, contact Matt Wells.

Finger Lakes Cider House

4017 Hickok Road
Interlaken, NY 14847

At the Cider House, they feature their own Good Life Cider as well as amazing ciders from friends at Black Diamond Cider, Eve's Cidery, Redbyrd Orchard Cider and South Hill Cider. Each of these dedicated grower-producers lives and works in the Finger Lakes region, and their ciders are true Finger Lakes originals!

Sponsored by:

- Seneca County Cornell Cooperative Extension
- Cornell Hard Cider Working Group
- Cornell Eastern New York Commercial Horticulture
