

2016 CCE LOF Winter Spanish-speaking Fruit Schools

Tuesday Feb. 23, Zingler Farms Inc., 8:30-3:15pm

(1468 Norway Rd., Kendall, NY 14476)

Wednesday Feb. 24, KC Bailey Orchards, Inc., 8:30-3:15pm

(7383 Salmon Creek Rd, then follow the Cornell signs at the corner of Salmon Creek Rd and Shepherd Rd)

Follow the Cornell signs both days!

8:30 am: Registration and Welcome – Mario Miranda Sazo, CCE-LOF

9:00am: Why Irrigation is so Important for Apple Production, How and When to Irrigate

– Jaume Lordan Sanahuja, Cornell University

9:30am: Main Apple Diseases that Reduce Apple Crop Value – Gemma Reig Cordoba,
Cornell University

10:30-10:45am: Coffee break

10:45am: Tips for Creating Positive Workplace Relations– Mary Jo Dudley, Cornell University (group activity assisted by Katie Oakes, CCE Orleans and Mario Miranda Sazo, CCE LOF).

Noon – 1pm: LUNCH

1:00pm: Introduction to Floral Induction, Floral Anatomy, and a Lab. Activity to Learn to Differentiate Vegetative and Floral Buds of Honeycrisp with a Dissecting Microscope – Indoor activity assisted by Mario Miranda Sazo, Matt Wells, and Liz Tee, CCE-LOF.

2:00pm: Precision Crop Load Management via Pruning (orchard pruning group exercises) – Mario Miranda Sazo CCE LOF, Jaume Lordan Sanahuja Cornell U., and Gemma
Reig Cordoba Cornell U.

3:00pm: Evaluation (return to indoor place)

3:15pm: Adjourn