

2024 Winter Fruit Webinars

Image Source: Pacific Horticulture

Winter Webinar Schedule:

Please save the date for six upcoming webinars in February and March. These webinars will provide updates on fruit-related topics and research happening at Cornell University. Webinars hosted by NYS IPM Program, CCE Harvest NY, CCE LOFT, and CCE ENYCHP.

Week 1: Implementing Mating Disruption in NY Orchards

Friday February 16, 2024 1:00PM-3:00PM

1.75 DEC Credits are available for categories 10, 1a, and 22 | Register: <https://bit.ly/winter-fruit-webinar-mating-disruption>

Week 2: Hot Topics in Food Safety for Fruit

Friday February 23, 2024 12:00PM-1:30PM

Register: <https://bit.ly/winter-fruit-webinar-food-safety>

Week 3: Soil Health for NY Orchards

Monday February 26, 2024 1:00PM-3:00PM

1.00 DEC Credits are available in categories 10, 1A, and 22 | Register: <https://bit.ly/winter-fruit-webinar-soil-health>

Week 4: Weed Management for Berries in NY

Wednesday March 6, 2024 12:00PM-2:00PM

1.00 DEC Credits are available in categories 10, 1A, and 22 | Register: <https://bit.ly/winter-fruit-webinar-berry-weed-management>

Week 5: Insect and Disease Pest Management for Berries

Monday March 11, 2024 12:00PM-2:00PM

1.50 DEC Credits are available in categories 10, 1A, and 22 | Register: <https://bit.ly/winter-fruit-webinar-berry-insects-diseases-biocontrol>

Week 6: Stone Fruit - Rootstocks and Disease Management

Tuesday March 19, 2024 12:00PM-1:30PM

0.50 DEC Credits are available in categories 10, 1A, and 22 | Register: <https://bit.ly/winter-fruit-webinar-stonefruit-rootstocks-diseases>

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

If you would like DEC Credits, please send a copy of your photo ID to Anna Wallis aew232@cornell.edu
To receive credits you will need to attend the entire webinar on your own computer/device, and complete the required Qualtrics survey at the beginning and again at the end of the webinar.