

European Cherry Fruit Fly

New Pest of Cherries Found in Niagara County

Update for Fruit Growers

Thursday, November 16th, 2017

Attend time that works for you

2pm or 7pm

(same meeting at both times)

Town of Porter Town Hall

Auditorium

3265 Creek Road

Youngstown, New York

European Cherry Fruit Fly (Rhagoletis cerasi) a new pest of cherries was recently found in Niagara County, New York.

Learn about the impact of this pest and restrictions as the pest is being eradicated.

- What is the European Cherry Fruit Fly?
- Where has European Cherry Fruit Fly been found in New York and North America?
- What are the restrictions/quarantines/regulations because of this new pest?
- Surveys going forward
- Timeline

Representatives from New York State Department of Agriculture, the United States Department of Agriculture and Cornell University will present information on this new pest and be available to answer questions.

For more information please contact the Division of Plant Industry at (518) 457-2087.