

Juliet Carroll, jec3@cornell.edu IPM Update

New NYS IPM Program Director

- Alejandro Calixto
 - Started May 15, 2020
 - Moving to NY next month

Tim Weigle

Grape IPM Area Specialist
NYS IPM and LERGP
Retired Nov 2019

Project Highlights

- NEWA
 - website rebuild, launch Nov 2020
- Orchard survey for exotics & invasives
- Spotted Wing Drosophila (SWD)
 - tart cherry monitoring network – Lake Ontario
 - 1 male found last week
 - berry monitoring network – statewide
 - 1 male found last week
 - hummingbirds vs. SWD
- Apple scab, snow cover & ascospore maturity

Develop sustainable ways to manage pests with methods that minimize environmental, health, and economic risks.

IPM Resources

- Apple IPM Intensive Workshop
 - Materials on the NYSIPM Fruits page
nysipm.cornell.edu/agriculture/fruits/apple-ipm-intensive-workshop-2020/
- NEWA
 - newa.cornell.edu
- SWD
 - fruit.cornell.edu/spottedwing/
 - blogs.cornell.edu/swd1/
 - SWD management
 - Mowing, pruning, sanitation
 - Monitoring, spraying
 - Insecticide quick guides

The next invasion? ... spotted lanternfly; shown on grape.

If you see it, report it to NYS Dept of Ag and Markets

<https://survey123.arcgis.com/share/a08d60f6522043f5bd04229e00acdd63>

- NYSIPM Program Fruits page
 - nysipm.cornell.edu/agriculture/fruits/
- New IPM fact sheets, on Cornell eCommons
 - Apple scab
 - Fire blight
 - Powdery mildew of apple
 - Cedar apple rust
 - Bacterial canker
 - Black stem borer – in press

Questions?

J. Carroll, NYS IPM Program
Cornell University
jec3 @cornell.edu

